Terms & Conditions

- Fees must be paid prior to participation.
- Activities may finish later than scheduled depending on transport and traffic conditions.
- Saturday excursions are optional and charged separately.
- Students are required to follow AIL staff instructions at all times.
- All AIL staff members hold valid Working With Children Checks (WWCC).
- AIL does not provide food or snacks during the day. Students are required to prepare and pack their own meals/snacks.
- AIL takes reasonable care for student safety, but some risks (travel, outdoor conditions, minor accidents) are inherent in activities.
- AIL activity calendar will be released and available for students at least one week in advance.
- AIL may cancel certain activities due to weather, lower numbers, or unforeseeable circumstances. In such cases, AIL will provide an appropriate make-up arrangement.

- AIL may take photos or videos during activities for sharing with students/parents and for use in AIL promotional or marketing materials, including social media. By signing this form, you consent to such use unless you notify AIL in writing.
- Parents/guardians must inform AIL in advance of any medical, physical, or other conditions that may affect the student's participation in activities, so that appropriate support arrangements can be made.

Consent & Declaration

I confirm that I have read and understood the information above. I give permission for my child to participate in the AIL PSP/HSP after-school activities as indicated, and acknowledge the Terms & Conditions, including media consent and disclosure of relevant health conditions.

- I authorise AIL staff to administer first aid or seek emergency medical assistance for my child if required.
- I accept responsibility for any medical, transport, or related costs incurred, including if my child is required to be sent home due to misbehaviour or inappropriate conduct.
- I consent to AIL staff to seek emergency medical assistance for my child if required.
- I accept responsibility for any medical or related costs incurred.
