About AIL

Australian Institute of Language (AIL) is a Registered Training Organisation and CRICOS provider with three modern campuses located in the heart of Melbourne CBD, Box Hill, and Brighton (for Under-18 programs only).

AIL is widely recognised in the industry as a NEAS quality-endorsed centre, NAATI-endorsed course provider, AEAS official course partner, ETS TOEFL authorised test centre, LanguageCert authorised test centre, and one of the largest official IELTS test centres in Australasia, offering both computer-delivered and paper-based IELTS tests.

At AIL, we are committed to delivering the highest standards of service to our students. What we promise is what we deliver: programs of exceptional quality that create long-term value and focus on student success.

Our mission is to empower students to achieve beyond their expectations—enhancing their skills, performance, and confidence so they are well-prepared to contribute productively, responsibly, and ethically in their future careers and communities.

Holistic approach to personal, social, and academic development, nurturing well-rounded individuals.

Direct and smooth transition into mainstream Australian schools, including prestigious institutions.

AIL Primary School Preparation Course (PSP)

The PSP course is designed for young international learners preparing to enter upper primary levels in the Australian school system. Students are likely to come from a wide range of educational and cultural backgrounds, most commonly from countries across Asia.

PSP Course Objectives

The learning goal of the AIL Primary School Preparation (PSP) course is to equip international primary-aged students with the English language skills, academic foundations, and cultural understanding needed to transition confidently and successfully into Australian primary schools.

PSP Course Focus

The course focuses on developing students' abilities in listening, reading, writing, and speaking, while also building classroom language, critical thinking, and social skills essential for participation in mainstream education.

PSP Course Structure and Levels

The PSP program at AIL is delivered in two progressive levels to cater for the varying English proficiency and academic readiness of international primary-aged students:

- Level 1: (approx. Victorian Curriculum Levels 3 – 4)

Designed for students who are new to English or at an early stage of language development. Focus is placed on building core communication skills, classroom routines, and foundational literacy and numeracy using English as the medium of instruction.

- Level 2: (approx. Victorian Curriculum Levels 5 – 6)

Designed for students with emerging or intermediate English proficiency. This level introduces subject-based academic language (Maths, Science, Humanities), enhances writing and comprehension skills, and prepares students for integration into Years 4–6 of mainstream primary school.

Both levels are aligned with the Victorian Curriculum F–10, ensuring students are developing age-appropriate language and cognitive skills for successful transition to Australian schools.

PSP Course Learning Outcomes

Victorian Curriculum F–10 Levels	AIL PSP Level	Description of proficiency
Approx. Levels 3–4	Level 1 Foundation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understand and use basic classroom expressions and greetings.• Recognise letters, numbers, and familiar words in print.• Answer simple questions about themselves (name, age, likes/dislikes).• Follow very simple oral instructions.• Copy and write isolated words and short phrases.
Approx. Levels 3–4	Level 2 Advanced	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understand and respond to everyday classroom language and basic personal questions.• Identify the main idea in simple spoken and written texts (e.g., school timetables, posters).• Introduce themselves and give basic personal information.• Write simple sentences about family, school, and daily activities.• Follow short, clear instructions and classroom routines.

In the AIL Primary School Preparation (PSP) course, time is carefully allocated to each subject area to ensure balanced development of academic English, subject-specific knowledge, and essential study skills. While exact hours may vary slightly depending on student level and program structure, a typical weekly schedule includes:

- Core English:
